

26. Policy Prohibiting the Solicitation and Acceptance of Gifts

GENERAL POLICY:

It is the policy of the Blue Island Public Library to comply with the State Gift Ban Act through the promulgation of this policy. Neither the Open Meetings Act nor the Freedom of Information Act nor the policies of the Blue Island Public Library in furtherance of those Acts are applicable to proceedings, meetings or documents involved here, which are exempt thereafter.

EXEMPTION:

Due to the high costs of compliance for uncompensated and non-salaried, appointed and/or elected members of the Board of Trustees, and given that the experience of gifts of any kind or value to them is virtually non-existent and certainly has not been a source of improper action, influence or effect in this Library or any Public Libraries in Illinois, it is the policy to exempt all non-salaried appointed or elected officials of the Library from this Policy and the State Act, as permitted by that Act.

DEFINITIONS:

The terms “gift”, “prohibited source” and “employee” whether used in the singular or plural form and as used in this policy, have the meaning as defined in the State’s Gift Ban Act.

PROHIBITED GIFTS:

The solicitation and acceptance of any “gifts” from any “prohibited source,” are banned and prohibited for all Library employees.

EXCEPTIONAL GIFTS:

The restrictions in the foregoing section do not apply to the following:

1. Anything for which the employee pays market value or anything not used and promptly returned to the donor or given to an appropriate charity;
2. A contribution lawfully made under the Election Code or attendance at a fund raising event sponsored by a political organization;

3. A gift from a relative as defined in the Act;
4. Anything provided by an individual on the basis of a personal friendship unless there is a reason to believe that, under the circumstances, the gift was provided because of the employee's position and not because of personal friendship;

8. Food, refreshments, lodging, transportation and other benefits resulting from outside business or employment activities if they have not been enhanced by the position of employment with the Library and are customarily provided to others in similar circumstances or in connection with bona fide employment discussions by a prospective employer or provided in connection with a fund raising or campaign event sponsored by the organization;
9. Pension and other benefits resulting from continued participation in an employee welfare and benefits plan maintained by a former employer;

16. Anything that is paid for by the federal government, the State or the Library or secured by the government under a government contract;

19. Opportunities and benefits that are available to the public or to all employees whether or not geographically restricted, offered to a class of members which is unrelated to employment or official positions, offered to members such as employees' association or credit union, offered to a group that is not defined in a manner that specifically discriminates on the basis of branch of government or type of responsibility or on the basis that favors those of higher rank or pay, in the form of loans on terms generally available to the public or in the form of reduced membership or other fees for participation in organization activities offered to all government employees;
20. A plaque, trophy or other item that is substantially commemorative in nature and that is extended for presentation;
21. Golf or tennis, food or refreshments of nominal value and catered food or refreshments, meals or beverages consumed on the premises from which they were purchased;
22. Donations of products from an Illinois company that are intended primarily for promotional purposes and are of minimal value;
23. An item of nominal value such as greeting card, baseball cap or T-shirt;
24. Attendance at events: an employee may accept an offer of free attendance at a widely attended convention, conference, symposium, forum, panel discussion, dinner, viewing, reception, or similar event provided by the sponsor of the event if the employee participates as a speaker or panel participant or by performing a ceremonial function appropriate to their employment or position or attendance at the event is appropriate to the performance of civic affairs in Illinois or the official duties of the employee. The acceptance of a sponsor's unsolicited offer of free attendance at such an event may include an accompanying individual. An employee may accept a sponsor's unsolicited offer of free attendance at a charity event except reimbursement for transportation and lodging may not be accepted in connection with the event. This "free attendance" may include waivers of all fees and unless otherwise stated the provision of transportation, food, refreshments, entertainment and instructional materials but does not include entertainment collateral to the event or food or refreshments taken other than in the group setting with substantially all of the attendees except as permitted under Subsection 21 above.

ENFORCEMENT:

Any employee who violates this policy shall be subject to termination or other discipline, including but not limited to suspension (with or without compensation) of employment for a stated term, a requirement to reimburse, return or turnover of any prohibited gift as directed by the Board of Trustees.

ETHICS OFFICER:

The President of the Board of Library Trustees shall designate an Ethics Officer for the Library who shall review Statements of Economic Interests and disclosure forms for members, officers and employees of the Library before they are filed and provide guidance to members, officers and employees in the interpretation and implementation of the State Gift Ban Act. The Ethics Officer may seek the advice of the Library Attorney as and when necessary to aid in the execution of said duties.
